When they arrived there, Peter asked questions to the parents. They answered that her name was Sarah, she was five years old, she was always playing in the park next to their house, and that was there where she left. Peter wrote it in a paper, and Toby saw a photograph of Sarah. He recorded this photo in his mind forever. With the time, they found a lot of things to capture the criminal. One day, they went to a building and they saw them. Toby caught Sarah, and Peter captured the criminal. They were very courageous and they could watch them on the TV. They became famous!
